PLEASE READ CAREFULLY THE NOTES BELOW BEFORE COMPLETING THIS APPLICATION FORM

1. Irrevocable Credit: - An Irrevocable Credit, once established and advised cannot be cancelled or amended in any way with the consent of the beneficiary.
2. Liabilities: - The bank becomes liable to its correspondents when an Irrevocable Credit is established and is bonded to honor document and reimburse them for payments acceptance or negotiations effected in accordance with the term of the credit.
3. Expiry Date: - A definite date of expiry of the credit must be given. The Credit will automatically cease at the date of expiry without the need for further advices even if it is not fully utilized. The expiry date can of course be extended on instruction from customer. Expiry Date only applies to the date of payment abroad and not the date of receipt of the documents or advices by this Bank to whom this request is made.
4. Documents: - The documents essentially required are entered in the form. It may be noted that such documents need be specified individually. If, however alteration are required such alteration or addition may be done under the applicant's own initial.
5. Insurance Policies/ - Where insurance is covered here, Myanmar Insurance Cover Note/Policy or Certificate covering all risks, for full protection of the goods shipped under this Credit until final clearance (attached to the application form) would be required. Where insurance is to be effected abroad, all risks (including marine and war risks to cover 10 percent above the invoice amount) for the full protection of the goods shipped, should be covered with the stipulation that claims are payable in Yangon.
6. Particular of goods - The general description of the goods should be stated, as "Rice" "Timber" etc., with such particulars as to quantity, etc., as the customer may require. It is undesirable to complicate a Credit with more details than are essential especially when credit have to be telegraphed, and it may be quite satisfactory to have the credit opened as brief and simple a form as possible.
7. Bill of Lading - If transshipment is permitted, it is essential that customers specifically stipulate the requirement for "THROUGH Bill of Lading"
